

Babs Beckwith

Direct: 703.836.1297
www.Babsbeckwith.com
Babsbeckwith@aol.com

Specializing in Old Town Properties for 25 years

ALEXANDRIA, VA
Offered at $3,350,000

1780 TOBACCO WAREHOUSE, NOW A UNIQUE RESIDENCE

Built in 1780 as a tobacco warehouse, this building has evolved over decades with various purposes and is today an exciting residence with a beautiful yard and gardens. 4 bedrooms, an enormous family room with vaulted ceilings, a unique kitchen with breakfast room with glass on three sides, plus spacious living and dining rooms contribute to this one-of-a-kind Old Town property.

Photography by Bob Narod © 2014.

ALEXANDRIA, VA
Offered at $2,495,000

SPECTACULAR WATERFRONT VIEWS

Waterfront living in Old Town Alexandria is magical. This pristine home offers four fireplaces, deep moldings, hardwood floors throughout and a two car attached garage. A gourmet kitchen with an eating area and adjoining family room is located on the river side of the house with three sets of French doors. Five bedrooms, four and one half renovated baths, custom built-ins and a private patio are all special features of this property.

Photography by Bob Narod © 2014.

ALEXANDRIA, VA
Offered at $2,350,000

STATELY HISTORIC HOME SITED ON A DOUBLE LOT

Circa 1842, this stately Old Town home across from Benjamin Latrobe's Saint Paul's Episcopal Church is on a double lot with a gorgeous garden. Twin fireplaces with original marble mantels and surrounds, a renovated chef's kitchen plus a stunning sunroom opening to the garden are just a few features of this five bedroom residence. The flounder portion was once owned by Charles Simms, Revolutionary officer, friend of George Washington and Mayor of Alexandria.

Photography by Bob Narod © 2014.